MESSAGE

I am extremely pleased to note that Uttarakhand State Legal Services Authority has decided to issue quarterly news letters, depicting various legal aid activities of the Authority. Better be late than never. I am also pleased to learn that the issue, containing activities of the Authority from the date of its inception, will be published as the first issue of the news letter.

I hope and trust that the first news letter is a success. I expect the activities of the Authority from the date of its inception in the State are furnished vividly in the inaugural news letter. I sincerely hope that the following quarterly news letters, in addition to highlighting activities of the Authority, focus on the beneficiaries as well as their reaction to the actions of the Authority and reach them with such news, which would enable them to obtain to the fullest extent the benefits available through the instrumentality of the Authority.

I wish all success to the proposed publications, which I hope shall be very useful to all concerned.

MESSAGE

To fulfill the mandate of Article 39A of the Constitution of India for providing free and comprehensive legal services to the weaker sections of the society and also to secure and promote the philosophy of justice to all, the Uttarakhand State Legal Services Authority was constituted in the year 2002. Since then, the Uttarakhand State Legal Services Authority is providing free legal aid and service to the public at large and is also organizing Lok Adalats in all the district courts in the State of Uttarakhand as well as in the High Court.

In order to widen the legal awareness amongst the public at large and to make them aware of their rights and duties, the authority is now bringing out a quarterly Newsletter highlighting not only the activities of the Authority, but also to create legal awareness to the public at large.

I hope in future, the Newsletter would become a valuable source of information to all. I am sure that the publication of the Newsletter will be a stepping stone towards the legal movement in the State of Uttarakhand.

Tarun Agarwala
(Justice Tarun Agarwala)

HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE

Article – 39A of the Constitution of India speaks for Equal Justice and Free Legal Aid. It states that “The State shall secure that the operation of the legal system promotes justice, on a basis of equal opportunity, and shall, in particular, provide free legal aid, by suitable legislation or schemes or in any other way, to ensure that opportunities for securing justice are not denied to any citizen by reason of economic or other disabilities.”

To fulfill this mandate of Article 39-A of the Constitution and establishing a nation-wide network for providing free and comprehensive legal services to the weaker sections of the society and also to secure and promote the philosophy of justice to all, the Legal Services Authorities Act was enacted in the year 1987. Thereafter, to make policy and implement the motto of “ACCESS TO JUSTICE FOR ALL”, the National Legal Services Authority, Supreme Court Legal Services Committee, State Legal Services Authority, High Court Legal Services Committee, District Legal Services Authority and Tehsil Legal Services Committee have been established.

The Uttarakhand State Legal Services Authority was constituted on March 20, 2002 under Section 6 of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 and its office was inaugurated at Nainital on 8th June, 2002 by Hon'ble Mr. Justice B.N. Kirpal, the then Chief Justice, Supreme Court of India in the august presence of Shri Arun Jaitley, Hon'ble the then Law Minister, Govt. of India.
